arche

"CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT"

Guiding Principles for Ethical and Professional Behaviour

DOCUMENT HISTORY

Document Number	AGPL-PE-001
Department	People Excellence
Prepared by	Consultant-Talent Experience
Reviewed by	Director-People Excellence
Approved by	CEO, Arche Global Pvt Ltd
Issue Date	30-Jan-2025
Review Date	22-Jan-2025
Approved Date	24-Jan-2025
Revision	AGPL-PE-001 V.0

REVISION HISTORY

Issue/Revision		Date	Brief Description of Revision	Author's Sign	Approver's Sign
From	To
-	v.0		New Policy

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

INTRODUCTION

Employees of Arche Global Pvt Ltd or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries and others performing work for Arche Global Pvt Ltd or on its behalf, collectively referred to in this CBC as "associates", are expected to act lawfully, honestly, ethically, and in the best interests of the Company while performing duties on behalf of Arche Global Pvt Ltd. Use of the terms "Arche Global Pvt Ltd" and "the Company" throughout this document refers collectively to all of these entities.

The Code of Business Conduct (herein after to be referred to as CBC') establishes clear expectations for employees as representatives of Arche Global Pvt Ltd. It outlines our responsibilities to the Company, our colleagues, customers, vendors, and government entities. All employees must adhere to the law, demonstrate integrity and honesty in all interactions, and take accountability for their actions.

This CBC serves as a guideline for the required business conduct of associates. If you are unsure whether your actions or those of another associate align with this CBC, please contact your line manager or the People Excellence team for guidance. Note that this CBC may change and could be amended, supplemented, or replaced by separate policies.

Every associate at Arche Global Pvt Ltd is responsible for understanding and complying with this CBC and applicable laws. Additionally, associates should strive to avoid any appearance of improper behaviour.

In case of any uncertainties, ask for guidance from your line manager or People Excellence Personnel.

Line Managers must actively foster a culture of ethics and compliance by demonstrating and promoting ethical behaviour. As a manager, you are responsible for:

- Ensure that team members understand their responsibilities under the CBC and other Company policies.
- Initiate discussions about the CBC and emphasizing the importance of ethics and compliance with employees.
- Create an environment where employees feel safe raising concerns without fear of retaliation.
- Incorporate ethical conduct and adherence to company policies into employee evaluations.
- Avoid any actions or directives that prioritize business results over ethical conduct or compliance with the CBC or the law.
- Provide accurate answers, when possible, but seek assistance if further expertise or investigation is necessary / required.
- Report concerns requiring investigation under the CBC to your Line Manager or HR Personnel.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Employees are responsible for promptly reporting any practices or actions they believe violate the CBC or are illegal, to their Line Managers or to the People Excellence Personnel. Reports can be made confidentially, where appropriate and as needed, and will be handled with integrity.

- Submit concerns in good faith; retaliation against employees for such reports is strictly prohibited. The Company also ensures the rights of individuals involved are respected.
- If you choose to reveal your identity, investigators will take reasonable precautions to maintain confidentiality while conducting a thorough and fair investigation. To protect confidentiality, refrain from discussing these issues or the investigation with others.
- The Company treats all reports of potential misconduct seriously, conducts investigations confidentially, determines whether violations occurred, and takes corrective action as needed.

Compliance with laws, rules and regulations

Arche Global Pvt Ltd and its employees are bound by the law.

It is crucial to maintaining ethical standards and legal responsibilities within an organization. Employees are expected to adhere to all relevant laws, company policies, and industry regulations. This compliance ensures the organization operates with integrity, reduces the risk of legal issues, and promotes a culture of transparency and accountability.

Where and How to Report:

Arche Global Pvt Ltd encourages employees to speak up if they observe any unethical, illegal, or non-compliant behaviour. Reporting concerns is a critical part of maintaining a transparent and ethical workplace. Employees should feel empowered to report issues without fear of retaliation.

- Direct Manager/Supervisor: Employees are encouraged to first report any concerns or allegations to their direct manager or supervisor, who can address the issue or escalate it to the appropriate department.
- People Excellence Department (HR): If the concern involves the direct manager or if the employee feels uncomfortable reporting to them, they can contact the HR department. HR can provide guidance and take appropriate action to resolve the issue.
- Compliance Officer: For issues related specifically to compliance with laws, regulations, or company policies, employees can report directly to the compliance department or officer. They specialize in handling such concerns and ensuring the company remains compliant.

Contact Information for Reporting:

- People Excellence Department: speakup@arche.global & 7397761395
- Compliance Officer: manoharan.t@arche.global & 7045756931

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Respect at the Workplace:

Respect in the workplace is essential for cultivating a positive, inclusive, and productive environment. Employees at all levels are accountable for upholding the principles of respect by treating colleagues, subordinates, and superiors with dignity, kindness, and professionalism, irrespective of their position, background, or beliefs. Respectful behaviour enhances collaboration, minimizes conflicts, and fosters overall job satisfaction.

Key Principles of Respect at the Workplace:

- Promoting Equality: Treat everyone fairly and equitably, avoiding discrimination based on race, gender, age, religion, or any other characteristic.
- Encouraging Open Communication: Create and maintain an atmosphere where employees feel safe expressing their opinions without fear of retaliation or judgment.
- Exemplifying Professionalism: Conduct all interactions with professionalism, avoiding inappropriate language, actions, or behaviours that could undermine respect.
- Acknowledging Contributions: Recognize and value the efforts and achievements of others, fostering a culture of appreciation and collaboration.
- Protecting Confidentiality: Handle sensitive information with discretion and respect the privacy of colleagues to maintain trust.

Where and How to Report Concerns

Employees of Arche Global Pvt Ltd should report any concerns related to disrespectful behaviour, harassment, discrimination, or any other form of misconduct as soon as possible. Reporting ensures that issues are addressed promptly, and that the workplace remains a safe and respectful environment for all.

Steps to Report a Concern:

1. Direct Reporting:
   - Immediate Supervisor/Manager: Start by reporting the concern to your immediate supervisor or manager, who can often address the issue directly.
   - People Excellence Department: If the issue involves your supervisor or if you are uncomfortable reporting to them, contact your HR.
2. Documentation:
   - Keep detailed records of the incidents, including dates, times, what was said or done, and any witnesses. Documentation can support your report and help in the investigation.

Contact Information

To report a concern or raise an allegation, you can contact the following:

- People Excellences Department: speakup@arche.global & 7397761395

Employees are encouraged to speak up without fear of retaliation. The organization is committed to maintaining a respectful and safe workplace for everyone.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Sexual Harassment and Other Discriminatory Harassment:

Sexual harassment and discriminatory harassment are serious breaches of workplace ethics and legal standards. All employees are accountable for ensuring a safe, respectful, and inclusive work environment by refraining from and addressing any forms of harassment.

Definitions and Responsibilities:

- Sexual Harassment: Includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment. Employees must avoid such behaviour and report any incidents promptly.
- Discriminatory Harassment: Encompasses unwelcome behaviour based on race, colour, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or other protected characteristics that interferes with work performance or creates a hostile work environment. Employees are responsible for treating colleagues with fairness and reporting discriminatory conduct.

At Arche Global, we strictly prohibit all forms of harassment. Violations may result in disciplinary actions, including termination of employment. Our management is responsible for taking immediate and appropriate action to address and prevent harassment.

We are also dedicated to fostering a workplace where every individual is treated with dignity, respect, and equality, ensuring a safe and productive environment for all.

Where and How to Report

If you experience or witness sexual harassment or any form of discriminatory harassment, it is important to speak up and report the behaviour immediately. The organization encourages all employees to report concerns promptly and ensures that all reports are taken seriously and handled confidentially.

How to Report a Concern (or Raise an Allegation)

- Direct Communication: If you feel safe, you may address the behaviour directly with the individual involved, asking them to stop the inappropriate conduct.
- Immediate Supervisor or Manager: You can report the incident to your immediate supervisor or manager, who is obligated to take your concern seriously and escalate it as needed.
- POSH Internal Committee (IC) Presiding Officer: Arche Global has a dedicated POSH (Prevention of Sexual Harassment) Internal Committee to handle sexual harassment complaints. You can report any concerns directly to the Presiding Officer of the POSH IC Committee.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

How to Contact:

- Presiding Officer: Ramya Shrikrishnan
- Email: ramya.s@arche.global
- Phone: 9884220625

The organization guarantees confidentiality in handling all reports and strictly prohibits retaliation against anyone who reports harassment in good faith.

After a report is made, POSH Committee will conduct a thorough investigation and take appropriate actions, ensuring that the issue is resolved, and that the workplace remains safe and respectful for all employees.

Policy on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI)

At Arche Global, we are committed to fostering a diverse, equitable, and inclusive workplace, recognizing its importance in driving innovation, creativity, and collaboration. This policy defines the accountabilities and principles that ensure all employees, regardless of background, are valued, respected, and provided equal opportunities to succeed.

Scope:

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, vendors, and stakeholders of Arche Global across all levels and locations.

Commitment to Diversity:

We are accountable for building a workforce that reflects the diversity of the communities we serve by:

- Recruiting Actively: Identifying and hiring candidates from diverse backgrounds and underrepresented groups.
- Encouraging Perspectives: Leveraging diverse experiences, perspectives, and skills to drive organizational success.
- Partnering Strategically: Collaborating with organizations and institutions that promote diversity in education and employment.

Commitment to Equity:

We ensure fair treatment and access to opportunities for all individuals by:

- Implementing Unbiased Hiring: Evaluating candidates solely on merit and qualifications.
- Ensuring Equity in Advancement: Providing fair promotions, compensation, and professional development opportunities.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Reviewing Regularly: Assessing and refining policies to eliminate systemic inequities.

Commitment to Inclusion:

We create a culture of belonging where every individual can thrive by:

- Fostering Respect: Maintaining a workplace where all employees feel valued, respected, and supported.
- Providing Training: Conducting regular sessions on unconscious bias, cultural competence, and inclusive leadership.
- Promoting Engagement: Supporting employee resource groups and initiatives that celebrate diversity and enhance inclusion.

Reporting and Addressing Concerns:

Arche Global has zero tolerance for discrimination, bias, or harassment of any kind. Employees are encouraged to report any violations of this policy through our grievance or whistleblower mechanisms without fear of retaliation. All reports will be handled confidentially and investigated promptly.

Accountability and Transparency:

The company leadership is responsible for embedding DEI principles in all aspects of the business. Progress will be monitored through measurable goals, and regular updates will be shared with employees and stakeholders.

Dress Code Policy

1. Monday to Thursday & for all Customer meetings:
   - Employees are required to wear formal business attire.
   - Outfits should be neat, clean, and properly ironed.
   - Shirts must be tucked in, and footwear should be formal (no flip-flops or casual sandals).

2. Fridays (Business Casual Day):
   - Employees may wear business casual outfits, but they must still appear well-groomed and professional.
   - Avoid excessively casual clothing such as ripped jeans, shorts, or T-shirts with inappropriate logos/messages.

3. General Appearance Guidelines:
   - Clothes should always be clean, well-maintained, and in good shape (no visible stains, rips, or tears).
   - Revealing, inappropriate, or unprofessional clothing is strictly prohibited.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Employees are expected to wear appropriate footwear that aligns with a professional work setting.

Personal Hygiene & Workplace Etiquette

In addition to appropriate dress, personal hygiene and workplace etiquette play a crucial role in maintaining a positive and healthy work environment. All employees are requested to adhere to the following:

- Personal Hygiene: Ensure that you maintain proper hygiene, including daily grooming, fresh breath, and clean attire.
- Smoke Smell & Strong Odors: Employees must be mindful of any lingering smoke smell from cigarettes or other substances, as it may cause discomfort to colleagues and customers.
- Strong Perfumes & Fragrances: While personal grooming is important, please avoid wearing strong perfumes, scented flowers, or overpowering fragrances that may cause allergic reactions or discomfort to others.
- Accessories & Jewellery: Items such as anklets or excessively noisy jewellery that may cause distractions should be avoided in the workplace.
- Consumption of Prohibited Substances: The use of PAN, Gutka, Alcohol, or any intoxicating substances within office premises is strictly prohibited. Employees are expected to maintain a professional demeanour at all times.

Compliance & Accountability

This policy is mandatory for all employees, and non-compliance may result in disciplinary action as per company guidelines. HR and reporting managers will monitor adherence to these policies, and repeated violations may lead to formal warnings or further action.

Environmental Responsibility

Our company is committed to actively promoting environmental sustainability by minimizing the impact of its operations and embedding sustainable practices across all aspects of its business. This section defines the specific responsibilities of the organization, leadership, employees, and stakeholders in driving sustainability and environmental stewardship.

Our company asserts that environmental responsibility is vital for long-term success and commits to integrating sustainability into its culture, operations, and partnerships. Each level of the organization must engage in proactive efforts to cultivate a sustainable future.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Guidelines for the Organization

The organization will:

- Integrate Sustainability into Operations:
  - Implement policies to reduce energy consumption, carbon emissions, and water usage.
  - Adopt eco-friendly technologies and processes to minimize waste.
  - Encourage renewable energy sources wherever feasible.
  - Install water-efficient fixtures to minimise consumptions and repair leaks and regularly monitor water systems to prevent wastage.
- Set Measurable Targets:
  - Establish clear environmental goals, such as reducing greenhouse gas emissions, reduce water consumption, improving waste management, and increasing recycling rates.
  - Conduct regular energy audits to identify and address inefficiencies.
- Comply with Regulations:
  - Adhere to all applicable environmental laws, regulations, and standards.
  - Conduct regular environmental audits to ensure compliance.
- Promote Circular Economy Practices:
  - Focus on resource efficiency by reusing, recycling, and reducing materials throughout the product lifecycle.
  - Collaborate with suppliers to ensure sustainable material sourcing and production practices.

Guidelines for Leadership

Leaders are expected to:

- Drive Environmental Commitment:
  - Actively champion sustainability initiatives within their teams and departments.
  - Allocate resources and support to implement environmental programs.
- Lead by Example:
  - Incorporate sustainable practices into business strategies and decision-making processes.
  - Promote innovative ideas that balance business performance with environmental stewardship.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Engage Stakeholders:
  - Work with customers, suppliers, and industry partners to adopt sustainable practices across the value chain.

Guidelines for Individuals (Employees)

Employees are encouraged to:

- Adopt Sustainable Practices:
  - Conserve resources by reducing paper use, switching off unused equipment, and saving energy and water.
  - Properly segregate waste and participate in company recycling programs.
- Reduce Carbon Footprint:
  - Choose sustainable commuting options, such as carpooling, or using public transport.
  - Opt for virtual meetings where feasible to minimize travel.
  - Use digital tools to limit reliance on paper and physical processes.
- Innovate for Sustainability:
  - Contribute ideas to improve environmental efficiency within their teams or projects.
  - Participate in training programs on environmental awareness and resource conservation.

Guidelines for Stakeholders in the Value Chain

The company expects its suppliers, vendors, and partners to:

- Adopt Sustainable Practices:
  - Align with the company's sustainability values by implementing eco-friendly manufacturing and business processes.
  - Minimize emissions, waste, and resource use throughout the supply chain.
- Ensure Compliance:
  - Meet or exceed environmental laws and standards in their jurisdictions.
- Collaborate on Solutions:
  - Partner with the company to explore innovative solutions for reducing environmental impact.

Sustainable Supply Chain:

- We shall partner with suppliers and vendors that demonstrate low-carbon practices.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Key stakeholders are expected to evaluate and optimize logistics to minimize emissions from transportation and shipping.

Key Focus Areas

- Resource Conservation:
  - Reduce energy, water, and material consumption across all operations.
- Carbon Footprint Reduction:
  - Prioritize strategies to lower greenhouse gas emissions, including renewable energy adoption and energy-efficient operations.
- Water Usage Reduction
  - The organization shall implement measures to optimize water usage and promote water conservation and encourage minimal water usage in daily operations
- Waste Management:
  - Implement programs to reduce, reuse, and recycle waste, focusing on zero landfill initiatives where possible.
- Sustainable Procurement:
  - Source materials responsibly, with preference for suppliers with strong environmental practices.
- Employee Awareness:
  - Conduct workshops and campaigns to educate employees on environmental responsibility and sustainability practices at work and home.

Implementation

- Governance: The Sustainability Committee will oversee the implementation of this policy, monitor progress, and drive accountability.
- Measurable Targets: Specific targets will be set annually for energy reduction, carbon emissions, and water usage, with progress tracked and reported in sustainability reports.
- Training: Employees and stakeholders will receive training and regular updates on energy conservation, carbon reduction, and water efficiency practices.

Monitoring and Reporting

- The organization will track key environmental performance indicators (KPIs) related to energy consumption, carbon emissions, and water usage.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Regular internal and external audits will be conducted to ensure policy compliance.
- Progress and achievements will be disclosed in the company's annual sustainability or ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) reports.

Monitoring and Accountability

- Regular assessments and audits will be conducted to ensure compliance with environmental guidelines.
- All stakeholders are responsible for reporting any environmental risks, non-compliance, or opportunities for improvement to the designated Sustainability Committee & Ethics and Compliance Office.

Continuous Improvement

The organization will continuously seek opportunities for improvement by:

- Incorporating new technologies and best practices to enhance environmental efficiency.
- Collaborating with industry leaders, stakeholders, and experts to share knowledge and improve outcomes.
- Reviewing and updating this policy periodically to address emerging challenges and advancements in sustainability.

Conflict of Interest Policy

A conflict of interest occurs when personal interests may compromise an employee's ability to make impartial decisions in the best interest of Arche Global Pvt Ltd.

- This includes scenarios where personal relationships, financial investments, or outside activities may influence work responsibilities or decision-making processes.
- Employees must proactively avoid conflicts of interest and promptly disclose any potential conflicts to their supervisor or the Human Resources department.
- Employees are accountable for steering clear of situations that could lead to a conflict of interest. If uncertain whether a situation constitutes a conflict, seek guidance from your manager or the People Excellence Department.
- The company will treat all reports confidentially, ensuring that employees are protected from retaliation when raising concerns in good faith.

Outside directorships and other outside activities

What Are Outside Directorships and Activities?

- Outside Directorships: When an employee of Arche Global Pvt Ltd serves as a director or in any official capacity for another organization, company, or entity outside of their primary employment.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Other Outside Activities: Includes any external employment, consultancy, volunteer work, or other activities that may intersect with the employee's professional duties or present a conflict of interest.

Why Are They Important?

- Potential conflicts of interest may arise if these activities interfere with an employee's primary responsibilities or compromise the organization's interests.
- Arche Global Employees must ensure that outside engagements do not affect their work performance, availability, or create a legal or ethical conflict.

Where and How to Report Outside Directorships and Activities:

Where to Report:

- Report through the Arche Global's HR portal.

How to Report:

- Document the nature of the outside activity or directorship.
- Provide details such as the name of the organization, your role, the time commitment, and any compensation received.
- Submit the report through the designated internal system or form.
- Obtain approval, if necessary, from a manager or HR before proceeding with the outside activity.

How to Report a Concern or Raise an Allegation:

- People Excellence Department: speakup@arche.global & 7397761395
- Compliance Officer: manoharan.t@arche.global & 7045756931

Steps to Raise a Concern:

- Identify the Issue: Clearly understand the concern or potential conflict.
- Provide Specifics: Include details such as dates, names, and any evidence.

These procedures ensure transparency and protect both the organization and its employees from potential conflicts of interest.

Vendors, Suppliers and Consultants

Approval Process:

All vendors, suppliers, and consultants working with Arche Global Pvt Ltd must undergo approval in strict compliance with the company's policies and procedures.

Employees are accountable for:

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Ensuring Compliance: Adhering to established processes when selecting and approving business partners.
- Evaluating Fairly: Basing all business relationships solely on the partner's ability to competitively meet the Company's needs.

Conflict of Interest:

Employees are responsible for identifying and addressing potential conflicts of interest to maintain integrity in business relationships. Specifically -

Disclosing Relationships: Immediately report any personal or professional relationships with current or potential vendors, suppliers, or consultants that may create or appear to create a conflict of interest.

- Avoiding Involvement: Refrain from participating in the approval, management, or influence of the Company's relationship with any party where a conflict exists or may arise.
- Escalating Concerns: Notify the appropriate department or manager to assess and mitigate potential conflicts.

How to Report Concerns

- People Excellence Department: speakup@arche.global & 7397761395
- Compliance Officer: manoharan.t@arche.global & 7045756931

Corporate Opportunities

- Non-Competition and Personal Gain: Employees must not compete with the Company or take personal advantage of business opportunities that belong to the Company.
- Reporting Potential Opportunities: If an employee wishes to pursue a business opportunity that may be of interest to the Company, they must inform their Line Manager. The Line Manager will then seek a management decision on whether the Company will pursue the opportunity.
- Pursuing Opportunities: If the Company decides not to pursue the opportunity, the employee may not pursue it independently, even if such opportunities result in indirect conflict with the Company's operations.

Where and How to Report Concerns

Employees of Arche Global Pvt Ltd should report any potential conflicts or seek guidance by contacting their Line Manager or the People Excellence department.

Confidential Information Policy

As an employee of Arche Global Pvt Ltd., it is essential to maintain the confidentiality of the company's proprietary information. This includes, but is not limited to, client data, financial records, business strategies, and any other sensitive information. Misuse or unauthorized disclosure of confidential information can lead to disciplinary action, including termination. Unauthorized access, sharing, or misuse of such information is strictly prohibited. Employees are responsible for safeguarding all confidential information and ensuring it is only used for legitimate business purposes.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

How to Report Concerns

If you have a concern about any breach of confidentiality or other misconduct, we encourage you to speak up. It is vital for maintaining the integrity and trust within our organization. To report a concern or raise an allegation, you can contact:

- Your Immediate Supervisor: Discuss any concerns with your direct manager.
- People Excellence Department: Reach out to the People Excellence team via email at speakup@arche.global or by phone at 7397761395.

Data Privacy and GDPR Compliance

The company is committed to protecting the privacy and security of personal data belonging to employees, customers, partners, and stakeholders. This section provides clear guidelines for complying with data privacy laws, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), and other applicable regulations.

Scope

This policy applies to:

- All employees, contractors, and third-party vendors handling personal data on behalf of the company.
- All personal data collected, processed, stored, shared, or transferred across regions, particularly in jurisdictions governed by GDPR, CCPA, or equivalent laws.

Key Principles for Data Privacy Compliance

The company adheres to the following data privacy principles:

- Lawful, Fair, and Transparent Processing
  - Personal data will be collected and processed only for legitimate business purposes.
  - Individuals (data subjects) will be informed about how their data is used through clear privacy notices and consent mechanisms.
- Purpose Limitation
  - Data will be collected only for specified and lawful purposes and not further processed in a manner incompatible with those purposes.
- Data Minimization

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Only the minimum amount of personal data necessary for a specific purpose will be collected and processed.

- Accuracy
  - Reasonable efforts will be made to keep personal data accurate, complete, and up to date.
- Storage Limitation
  - Personal data will not be retained longer than required for the purpose it was collected, unless otherwise required by law.
- Integrity and Confidentiality
  - Adequate technical and organizational security measures (e.g., encryption, access controls) will be implemented to protect personal data against unauthorized access, loss, or breaches.
- Accountability and Compliance
  - The company will maintain records of data processing activities and ensure compliance with applicable privacy laws.

Responsibilities for Data Privacy

- Organization Responsibilities
  - Ensure compliance with GDPR, CCPA, and other regional data protection laws across operations.
  - Designated Data Protection Officer (DPO) or privacy lead to oversee data privacycompliance and implement robust policies for data governance, privacy impact assessments (DPIA), and incident management.

- Employee Responsibilities
  - Understand and adhere to data privacy laws and company policies when handling personal data.
  - Avoid unauthorized access, sharing, or processing of personal data.
  - Report data privacy breaches or risks to the Data Protection Officer, Ethics and Compliance Officer and People Excellence department.

- Third-Party Vendors and Partners
  - All third-party vendors handling personal data must:
    - Sign a Data Processing Agreement (DPA) to ensure compliance with applicable laws.
    - Follow company-approved data protection standards and provide evidence of security measures.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

GDPR-Specific Guidelines

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the company will ensure:

- Lawful Basis for Processing
  - Personal data will be processed only under one of the lawful bases:
    - Consent of the data subject.
    - Performance of a contract.
    - Legal obligation.
    - Legitimate interests.
- Rights of Data Subjects
  Data subjects (employees, customers, or stakeholders) are entitled to:
  - Right to Access: Request access to their personal data.
  - Right to Rectification: Correct inaccuracies in their data.
  - Right to Erasure: Request deletion of their personal data ("Right to be forgotten").
  - Right to Restrict Processing: Limit how their data is processed.
  - Right to Data Portability: Receive their personal data in a structured, machine-readable format.
  - Right to Object: Object to processing, particularly for marketing purposes.
- Cross-Border Data Transfers
  - Transfers of personal data outside the European Economic Area (EEA) will comply with GDPR requirements, such as:
    - Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs).
    - Binding Corporate Rules (BCRs).
    - Adequacy decisions.
- Breach Notification
  - In the event of a data breach, the company will notify the relevant supervisory authority within 72 hours, as required under GDPR. Affected individuals will also be informed when necessary.

CCPA-Specific Guidelines

Under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), the company will ensure:

- Consumer Rights

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

California residents have the right to:

- Know what personal data is collected, sold, or shared.
- Opt out of the sale of their personal data.
- Request deletion of their personal data.
- Access their data upon request.

- Non-Discrimination
  - Individuals exercising their CCPA rights will not be treated unfairly or discriminated against (e.g., denied services or charged higher fees).
- Clear Privacy Notices
  - The company will provide clear, transparent privacy notices at the time of data collection.

Data Security Measures

The company will implement robust technical and organizational measures to protect personal data, including:

- Encryption of personal data at rest and in transit.
- Access controls to limit data access to authorized personnel only.
- Regular security audits and vulnerability assessments.
- Secure data storage and disposal methods.
- Training programs to raise employee awareness on data privacy requirements.

Monitoring and Compliance

- The designated Data Protection Officer (DPO) will monitor compliance with data privacy laws.
- Regular internal and external audits will be conducted to assess adherence to this policy.

Breach Management and Reporting

- Employees must immediately report any suspected or confirmed data breaches to the DPO (prasenjit.b@arche.global) and People Excellence.

- Breach incidents will be investigated, documented, and reported to the relevant authorities as required.

The company is committed to upholding the highest standards of data privacy, ensuring compliance with GDPR, CCPA, and other applicable data protection regulations. Employees,

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement vendors, and partners are expected to handle personal data responsibly and contribute to the company's mission of protecting privacy and building trust.

Guidelines on Social Media Presence and Personal Expression

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and representatives of Arche Global Pvt Ltd. It governs conduct during work hours and outside of work whenever social media activity can be linked to the company or impact its reputation.

Fraud, protection of Company assets, accounting

Fraud Prevention and Protection of Company Assets
Prohibition of Fraudulent Conduct:

Employees are accountable for maintaining the integrity of the company by:

- Avoiding Fraud: Never engaging in fraudulent or dishonest activities involving company assets or financial reporting.
- Understanding Consequences: Recognizing that violations may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination, and potential criminal charges.

Protection of Company Assets

Employees are responsible for safeguarding company assets by:

- Preventing Loss or Misuse: Protecting tangible and intangible assets, including trademarks, proprietary information, and information systems, from damage, theft, fraud, and destruction.
- Reporting Issues: Promptly reporting any incidents of loss, misuse, or security breaches to the appropriate authority.

Confidentiality:

Employees must uphold the company's commitment to confidentiality by:

- Restricting Disclosure: Sharing business, customer, and employee information only with individuals who have a legitimate business or legal need.
- Exercising Caution: Taking special care when transmitting sensitive information electronically to prevent unauthorized access.

Confidential Meetings:

Employees are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of company meetings by:

- Seeking Authorization: Obtaining specific prior approval from a line manager before recording meetings using audio or video equipment.
- Ensuring Privacy: Preventing unauthorized sharing of meeting content or recordings.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

How to Report Concerns:

Internal Reporting Channels:

- Immediate Supervisor or Manager: For initial reporting, consider discussing concerns with your immediate supervisor or manager. They can provide guidance and take action as needed.
- People Excellence Department: If reporting to your manager is not appropriate or if the issue involves them, contact the HR Department for assistance.

Compliance and Ethics Office:

- Direct Contact: Reach out to the person who handles Compliance via email at manoharan.t@arche.global or by phone at 7045756931. They investigate reports and ensures proper action is taken.

Whistleblower Protection:

- Non-Retaliation Policy: The company has a strict non-retaliation policy protecting employees who report concerns in good faith. All reports will be treated confidentially.

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Anti-Terrorism Financing

This policy applies to:

- All employees, contractors, and third-party partners.
- All company operations, financial transactions, business dealings, and interactions with clients, suppliers, and stakeholders.
- Business conducted across all geographies where the company operates, in compliance with applicable AML and Anti-Terrorism Financing laws.

Definition

- Money Laundering: The process of disguising illegally obtained funds to make them appear legitimate.
  - Example: Moving funds through shell companies, layering transactions, or falsifying invoices.
- Terrorism Financing: Providing funds or financial support to individuals or organizations that engage in terrorism or related activities.

Both practices are illegal and can expose the company and individuals to legal, financial, and reputational risks.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Organization's Commitment

The company is committed to:

- Detecting, preventing, and reporting any activities related to money laundering and terrorism financing.
- Complying with all applicable laws, regulations, and international guidelines, such as:
  - Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) in India.
  - Financial Action Task Force (FATF) recommendations.
  - Relevant international AML laws (e.g., US Bank Secrecy Act, UK Proceeds of Crime Act).
- Conducting business with transparency, integrity, and vigilance to mitigate financial crimes.

Guidelines

Know Your Customer (KYC) and Due Diligence

- Perform KYC checks on all customers, clients, vendors, and partners to verify their identity and ensure legitimacy before engaging in business transactions.
- Enhanced due diligence will be applied in high-risk situations
- Required documents include:
  - Government-issued identification.
  - Proof of address or business legitimacy.
  - Beneficial ownership details for companies or entities.

Monitoring and Reporting Suspicious Transactions

- Employees must remain vigilant for signs of suspicious activity, including:
- Unusual payment methods, such as large cash transactions or transfers without a clear purpose.
- Customers or partners reluctant to provide identification or business details.
- Transactions involving offshore accounts in high-risk jurisdictions.
- Any suspicious activity must be immediately reported to the designated Ethics and Compliance Officer for investigation.

Record-Keeping

- Maintain detailed and accurate records of all financial transactions, customer interactions, and due diligence efforts for a minimum period as required by applicable laws.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Prohibition of Cash Payments

- The company will not accept or make large cash payments unless approved under exceptional circumstances.

Third-Party Compliance

- Vendors, suppliers, agents, or partners must adhere to the company's AML guidelines and provide evidence of compliance.
- Contracts will include AML clauses ensuring third-party compliance with this policy.

Training and Awareness

- All employees must undergo mandatory AML training programs to identify, prevent, and report money laundering and terrorism financing activities.
- Regular updates and refresher training will be provided to ensure compliance with evolving regulations.

Responsibilities

- Employees:
    - Conduct business with integrity and vigilance.
    - Report any suspicious activity to the Ethics and Compliance Officer.
    - Actively participate in awareness sessions conducted to educate employees on governing principles around AML & ATF
- Managers and Leadership:
    - Promote a culture of compliance and ethical conduct.
    - Ensure due diligence processes are followed in business operations.
- Ethics and Compliance Officer:
    - Oversee the implementation of AML policies and procedures.
    - Investigate reported suspicious activities and escalate them to relevant authorities when required.
    - Maintain records and ensure reporting obligations to regulatory bodies are fulfilled.

Non-Compliance and Consequences

- Failure to comply with AML laws or this policy will result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment or contracts.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Individuals or entities found violating AML regulations may also face criminal charges, heavy fines, and legal penalties.

Reporting Suspicious Activity

- Any employee suspecting money laundering or terrorism financing must immediately report it to the Ethics and Compliance Officer through:
    - Confidential reporting channels.
    - Providing relevant details of the suspicious activity.
- The company ensures non-retaliation and confidentiality for employees who report in good faith.

The company has a zero-tolerance approach to money laundering and terrorism financing. By adhering to this policy, employees, vendors, and partners play a critical role in maintaining the company's integrity, legal compliance, and reputation in global markets.

Integrity

Integrity serves as the cornerstone of our business practices. Employees must demonstrate honesty, transparency, and consistency in all professional interactions. This includes honouring commitments, steering clear of conflicts of interest, and upholding the highest ethical standards. Employees are responsible for their actions and decisions and must remain accountable for preserving the company's reputation.

Technology Usage & Accountability

Safeguarding Computer Resources:

Employees are responsible for protecting company technology assets by:

- Avoiding Unauthorized Actions: Not duplicating, distributing, or lending software without explicit authorization from Arche Global Pvt Ltd.

Email and Internet Use:

Employees must use company email and Internet systems responsibly by:

- Representing the Company: Acting professionally and adhering to Company policies and applicable laws.
- Respecting Others: Ensuring usage respects the dignity of colleagues and third parties.

Computer Security:

Employees are accountable for maintaining computer security by:

- Securing Data: Protecting data from unauthorized access or breaches.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Reporting Breaches: Promptly informing their line manager of any security incidents.

Personal Use of Internet:

Employees may use the Internet for personal purposes only if it:

- Does Not Interfere: Avoids disruption to work or conflict with business needs.
- Adheres to Policies: Complies fully with Company policies and guidelines.

Monitoring:

The Company retains the right to monitor and access employee use of Company equipment and systems, including email and Internet activity, to ensure compliance with policies.

Responsibility and Compliance:

Employees must follow all applicable laws and Company policies when using the Internet for business purposes by:

- Avoiding Misuse: Refraining from accessing inappropriate content, engaging in hacking, fraudulent activities, or misusing Company resources.

Intellectual Property Protection:

Employees are required to respect and safeguard intellectual property by:

- Preventing Unauthorized Use: Protecting Company software, information, and data from unauthorized use, duplication, or distribution.

Prohibition on Personal Accounts:

Employees must conduct all business activities exclusively through Company-authorized access accounts and IDs, avoiding personal accounts for business purposes.

Social Media Use and Personal Expression Policy

Purpose:
To provide clear guidance on appropriate behaviour when using social media, ensuring that employees protect the company's reputation and confidential information while expressing personal opinions.

Key Guidelines:

1. Representation of the Company:
    - Employees should not present themselves as official spokespeople unless explicitly authorized by the company.
    - Personal opinions must be clearly stated as personal and not reflective of the company's position.
2. Confidential Information:

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Avoid sharing any proprietary, confidential, or sensitive company information on social media platforms.
- Refrain from discussing client or partner-related details unless such communication is pre-approved.

3. Respect and Professionalism:
   - Maintain a respectful tone when discussing topics related to the company or industry.
   - Avoid engaging in online arguments or inflammatory conversations that could damage the company's reputation.
4. Compliance with Company Policies:
   - Social media use must comply with the company's confidentiality, harassment, and intellectual property policies.
5. Personal Expression:
   - Employees are free to express personal opinions on social media, provided they do not harm the company's interests or violate company policies.
   - Include disclaimers such as: "Opinions expressed are my own and not those of my employer" when commenting on industry-related matters.
6. Prohibited Activities:
   - Posting content that is discriminatory, defamatory, or harmful to the company's image.
   - Using company logos, trademarks, or other branding elements without explicit approval.
7. Consequences of Violations:
   - Violations of the social media policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Where and How to Report Concerns:

Internal Reporting Channels:

- Immediate Supervisor or Manager: Report any concerns related to technology misuse or policy violations to your immediate supervisor or manager. They can guide you on the next steps.
- IT Department: For issues specifically related to computer security, unauthorized access, or misuse of technology, contact the IT Department via prasenjit.b@arche.global & 9999879000.
- People Excellence Department: If reporting to your manager is not appropriate or if the issue involves them, contact the HR Department for assistance via speakup@arche.global & 7397761395.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Policy on Internal Communication

At Arche Global, effective and professional internal communication is the cornerstone of collaboration and organizational success. These guidelines outline our expectations for communication across all platforms, ensuring clarity, respect, and alignment with our company values.

General Communication Principles

- Professionalism: Always maintain a tone of respect and professionalism in all forms of communication, whether written, verbal, or digital. Avoid using language that could be construed as offensive, discriminatory, or inappropriate.
- Transparency: Communicate openly and honestly while respecting confidentiality. Share relevant information to ensure alignment and understanding across teams.
- Clarity and Brevity: Ensure messages are clear, concise, and free of ambiguity. Use plain language to avoid misunderstandings.

Digital Communication Etiquette

- Emails:
    - Use professional salutations and signoffs.
    - Be mindful of tone and avoid using all caps, excessive punctuation, or slang.
    - Include clear subject lines and organize content logically.
    - Include only those recipients who are directly responsible for or involved in the matter being discussed
    - Use “Reply All” and CC sparingly to minimize unnecessary inbox clutter.
- Messaging Platforms (Microsoft Teams):
    - Keep messages concise and relevant to the topic.
    - Use appropriate channels for specific discussions (e.g., team channels for group updates and direct messages for personal inquiries).
    - Avoid sending non-urgent messages outside of standard working hours unless previously agreed upon.
- Video and In-Person Meetings:
    - Come prepared and respect others’ time by adhering to the agenda.
    - Mute your microphone when not speaking during virtual meetings to minimize disruptions.
    - Encourage inclusive participation and avoid dominating the discussion.
    -

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Handling Sensitive Topics

- Confidentiality:
  - Avoid discussing sensitive topics, such as performance reviews, compensation related details, personal grievances, or private matters, in public forums.
  - Use secure communication methods for sensitive information and adhere to company confidentiality protocols.

- Conflict Resolution:
  - Address conflicts or misunderstandings directly and professionally. Escalate unresolved issues through appropriate channels, such as HR or management.
  - Avoid using email or messaging platforms to discuss sensitive conflicts; instead, opt for private conversations.

- Ethical Communication:
  - Refrain from spreading rumours or unverified information.
  - Ensure that all communications align with the company's CBC of ethics and respect cultural and personal differences.

4. Monitoring and Feedback

- Performance Review of Communication Practices:
  - Regularly assess communication practices through employee feedback and team evaluations to ensure effectiveness and improvement.
  - Managers are encouraged to provide constructive feedback on communication skills during performance reviews.

- Continuous Training:
  - The company provides training and resources on effective communication and digital etiquette to help employees stay aligned with these guidelines.

Anti-Bribery & Corruption

In Arche Global Pvt Ltd Bribery and corruption policies are critical components of ethical business practices, aimed at preventing unethical behaviour that could compromise integrity and fairness in business dealings. Below are key points regarding these policies.

Key Principles of Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policies

1. Prohibition of Bribery: Employees must not offer, promise, or accept any personal or financial advantage to obtain or retain business advantages. This includes direct and indirect actions through intermediaries, such as agents or consultants.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

2. Avoiding Conflicts of Interest: Employees should not engage in activities that may create the appearance of impropriety or favouritism. This includes refraining from accepting gifts or benefits that could influence their decisions or actions in a business context.
3. Definition of Bribery and Corruption: Bribery is defined as offering or receiving anything of value to induce improper actions, while corruption encompasses a broader range of unethical behaviours that exploit entrusted power for personal gain.
4. Types of Advantages Considered Bribes: These can include cash, gifts, entertainment, job offers, and donations intended to influence a decision or action improperly. Even modest gifts can be seen as bribes if they create an expectation of favouritism.
5. Reporting Mechanisms: Employees are encouraged to report any concerns or allegations related to bribery and corruption. This can typically be done through designated compliance officers or hotlines established by the organization. It is crucial to ensure that such reports are made confidentially and without fear of retaliation.

How to Report Concerns

To report a concern regarding bribery or corruption, Arche Global employees should:

- Contact the Compliance Officer: Reach out to the designated compliance officer for guidance and to report any suspicious activities.
- Document Evidence: If possible, gather and document evidence related to the concern to support any claims made during the reporting process.

Whistleblower Policy and Anonymous Reporting

The Whistleblower Policy is designed to encourage employees, vendors, and other stakeholders to report any unethical behaviour, misconduct, or violation of legal, regulatory, or company policies, ensuring a safe and transparent working environment.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, vendors, and other stakeholders associated with the organization.

Key Objectives

- Encourage reporting of misconduct or violations without fear of retaliation.
- Establish a framework for confidential and secure reporting.
- Ensure impartial investigation of all complaints.
- Maintain accountability and transparency in handling reported issues.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Definitions

- Whistleblower: Any individual who reports a genuine concern about unethical or illegal activities.
- Protected Disclosure: A complaint or report made in good faith about wrongdoing.

Reporting Mechanism

Whistleblowers can report their concerns to the designated Compliance Officer.

Protection against Retaliation:

- The company ensures that whistleblowers are protected against harassment, discrimination, or adverse employment consequences.
- Any retaliation against a whistleblower will result in disciplinary action, up to termination.

Investigation Process:

- All reports will be reviewed promptly by the designated committee members.
- Investigations will be conducted confidentially and impartially.
- Whistleblowers may be required to provide additional details to aid the investigation.
- Findings will be documented, and appropriate actions will be taken if allegations are substantiated.

Confidentiality

The identity of the whistleblower and the details of the report will be kept strictly confidential unless disclosure is required by law or necessary for the investigation.

False Complaints

Complaints made maliciously or with false intent may lead to disciplinary action against the complainant.

Consequences for non-compliance

Consequences for non-compliance in an Arche Global Pvt Ltd can vary based on the severity of the violation and the specific policies of the organization.

Verbal or Written Warning

- For minor infractions or first-time offenses, a verbal or written warning may be issued. This serves as a formal notification of the violation and a reminder of the Arche Global's policies.

Mandatory Training or Re-Training

- Employees may be required to undergo additional training to address the area of non-compliance. This is often used to ensure that the employee understands the policies and procedures more thoroughly.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)

- A PIP may be implemented for employees who repeatedly violate policies. This plan outlines specific areas for improvement and sets goals and timelines for achieving compliance.

Suspension

- In cases of serious or repeated non-compliance, an employee may be suspended with or without pay. Suspension allows time for investigation and serves as a disciplinary measure.

Demotion:

- For significant breaches, an employee may be demoted to a lower position with reduced responsibilities and salary. This action reflects the severity of the violation and aims to correct behaviour.

Termination:

- In cases of severe or ongoing non-compliance, termination of employment may be necessary. This is typically reserved for the most serious infractions or when other corrective measures have failed.

Legal Action:

- If non-compliance involves illegal activities or breaches of regulatory requirements, legal action may be pursued. This can include lawsuits, fines, or other legal penalties.

Impact on Career Progression:

- Non-compliance may affect an employee's career advancement within the company, including promotions, raises, and involvement in important projects.

Damage to Professional Reputation:

- Repeated or severe non-compliance can harm an employee's professional reputation, potentially impacting their future career opportunities both within and outside the company.

Loss of Privileges:

- Access to c8ertain systems, projects, or resources may be restricted as a consequence of non-compliance. This is often used to mitigate risk while addressing the issue.

Non-Retaliation and Confidentiality

- Employees reporting concerns in good faith will be protected from any form of retaliation, harassment, or adverse action.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- Acts of retaliation against whistleblowers will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- All reports will be treated with the utmost confidentiality, and the whistleblower's identity will not be disclosed without their consent, unless required by law and the requirements of any investigation.
- Access to whistleblower reports will be limited to authorized personnel responsible for investigation and resolution.

Responsibilities

- Whistleblowers: Provide honest and detailed information when reporting concerns.
- Ethics & Compliance Office: Review reports, ensure timely investigation, and implement corrective actions.
- Leadership/Management: Foster an ethical culture, encourage reporting, and prevent retaliation.

Employee Mental Health and Wellbeing Support

At Arche Global, we are committed to creating a supportive environment that prioritizes the mental health and wellbeing of our employees. We understand that mental health is just as important as physical health, and we aim to provide resources and programs that promote mental wellness at every stage of an employee's journey with us.

Mental Health Support Programs

We offer comprehensive mental health support through various initiatives, including:

- Stress Management Workshops and Resources: Regularly offered workshops and online resources provide strategies for managing stress, maintaining a healthy work-life balance, and developing resilience. These sessions are conducted by certified professionals and are available to all employees.

- Mental Health Expert Talks: We regularly organize expert talks and webinars on topics like managing anxiety, mindfulness, and coping strategies for mental health challenges. These sessions aim to equip employees with practical tools for enhancing their mental wellbeing.

- Medical Camps and Health Screenings: We provide regular onsite medical camps and health screenings to ensure the physical health of our employees, including mental health assessments and stress evaluations.

These camps are conducted in collaboration with healthcare professionals and mental health

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement experts.

Continuous Evaluation and Improvement

We regularly review and improve our mental health support offerings based on employee feedback and industry best practices. Our goal is to create a sustainable and open culture where mental health is prioritized and supported across all levels.

Policy on Corporate Gifts and Hospitality

Purpose:
To provide clear guidelines on the acceptance, disclosure, and approval of gifts, meals, and entertainment to ensure ethical and transparent business practices.

Acceptable Gift Thresholds:

- In India: Employees may accept giftsvalued up to INR 4,000 without prior approval.
- Worldwide Locations: Employees may accept gifts valued up to USD 50 without prior approval.

Disclosure and Approval Procedures:

- Gifts Exceeding the Threshold: Any gift exceeding the specified monetary limit must be reported and approved by the Compliance Officer, based on the Department Head's approval.
- Reporting Timeline: Employees must disclose gifts within five (5) business days of receipt.
- Approval Process: Submit a Gift Disclosure mail detailing the nature, source, and estimated value of the gift for review.

Acceptable Gifts and Hospitality Examples:

- Acceptable:
  - Promotional items of nominal value (e.g., pens, diaries).
  - Occasional business meals within the specified limits.
  - Seasonal gifts like sweets or flowers within the value threshold.
- Unacceptable:
  - Cash or cash equivalents (e.g., gift cards, vouchers).
  - Personal services or favors.
  - Lavish entertainment or gifts that may influence business decisions.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Prohibited Gifts:

- Gifts during contract negotiations or bidding processes.
- Gifts from vendors or clients that create a conflict of interest.

Exceptions:
Any exceptions to this policy must be approved in writing by the Compliance Officer based on the Department Head's recommendation.
Cultural Sensitivity and Exceptions

- In certain cultural contexts where declining a gift may be considered disrespectful, employees must promptly report the gift and seek guidance from the Compliance Officer.
- Any exceptions to this policy must be documented and approved in writing by Compliance Officer.

Compliance:
Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Contact Information

For guidance or questions, employees should contact the Compliance Officer at [Contact Information].

Policy on Training and Education Program

The purpose of this policy is to establish a comprehensive training and education program to ensure all employees are knowledgeable about the company's CBC of Business Conduct (COBC), legal requirements, and ethical standards. This policy emphasizes ongoing learning in areas such as ethics, compliance, Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH), diversity, and other pertinent topics.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and temporary staff across all departments and locations.

Onboarding Training

- All new hires must complete mandatory training on the COBC, POSH, Company policies, and legal compliance within their first month of employment.
- This training will cover ethics, compliance standards, POSH guidelines, and diversity policies.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Ongoing Training

- Employees are required to participate in periodic training programs to stay updated on ethical standards, legal changes, and company policies.
- Annual compliance refreshers will be mandatory for all staff.
- Specialized training sessions on topics such as diversity, equity, inclusion, and workplace harassment prevention will be conducted semi-annually.

Role-Specific Training

- Employees in roles with higher compliance risks will receive additional, role-specific training tailored to their responsibilities.

Delivery Methods

- Training will be delivered through various formats, including in-person workshops, e-learning modules, webinars, and interactive sessions.
- Training materials will be accessible online to allow employees to review content as needed.

Monitoring and Compliance

- Participation in mandatory training will be tracked by the Human Resources and Compliance departments.
- Employees must complete assessments following training sessions to demonstrate understanding.
- Non-compliance with training requirements may result in corrective action.

Continuous Improvement

- Feedback will be collected from employees after training sessions to improve content and delivery.
- Training programs will be updated regularly to reflect legal updates and best practices.

Responsibility

- The Compliance and Human Resources departments are responsible for developing, implementing, and monitoring the training programs.
- Managers are accountable for ensuring their team members complete the required training.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

Policy on Reporting Framework for Ethical Concerns

This policy establishes a structured framework for reporting, investigating, and resolving ethical concerns within the organization. It aims to ensure transparency, accountability, and timely resolution of all reported issues.

Scope:

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, and temporary staff across all departments and locations.

Reporting Mechanisms

- Ethical concerns can be reported through multiple channels:
    - Directly to the immediate supervisor or manager.
    - To the Human Resources (HR) department.
    - Through the dedicated Ethics and Compliance hotline or email.

Reporting Framework

Receipt and Acknowledgment of Concerns

- All reported concerns will be acknowledged within 2 business days.
- The Compliance or HR department will log and categorize the concern based on its nature and severity.

Investigation Process

- Assigned Investigator: The Compliance department or a designated investigator will handle the investigation, ensuring impartiality and confidentiality.
- Preliminary Review: An initial review will be completed within 5 business days to determine the validity of the complaint and the appropriate course of action.
- Detailed Investigation: If warranted, a detailed investigation will commence, with interviews and evidence collection as necessary.

Escalation Process

- High-risk or sensitive issues will be escalated to senior management or the Ethics Committee for further review.
- Legal or regulatory concerns will be referred to the Legal department.

Resolution and Response

- The investigation and resolution process will typicallybe completed within 30 business days, depending on the complexity of the issue.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- The reporting party will be informed of the outcome, respecting confidentiality constraints.

Corrective Actions

- If a violation is confirmed, appropriate corrective actions will be taken, which may include disciplinary measures, policy revisions, or training programs.

Protection Against Retaliation

- The company strictly prohibits retaliation against individuals who report concerns in good faith.
- Any form of retaliation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Responsibilities

- Employees: Responsible for reporting ethical concerns promptly and honestly.
- Supervisors/Managers: Must support employees in reporting and escalate concerns appropriately.
- Compliance/HR Departments: Accountable for managing the investigation and resolution process.
- Senior Management: Oversees the implementation of corrective actions and ensures accountability.

Monitoring and Review

- The Compliance department will review reported cases quarterly to identify trends and areas for improvement.
- This policy will be reviewed annually and updated as necessary to maintain effectiveness.

Reporting Concerns

To report a concern or raise an allegation regarding gifts, meals, or entertainment, employees should contact the designated Compliance Office. It is crucial to follow the established protocols to ensure transparency and accountability in all business dealing

Reporting Illegal or non-compliant conduct:

Arche Global Employees' Responsibilities

- Employees must report any practices or actions believed to be inappropriate under the CBC of Conduct or even illegal to their line manager or People Excellence Personnel.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement

- If you are aware of any illegal or unethical behaviour or if you believe that an applicable law, rule, regulation, or the CBC has been violated, you must promptly report the matter to your line manager or People Excellence Personnel.
- You will be expected to cooperate in ensuring that violations of the CBC are promptly addressed.
- The company has a policy of protecting the confidentiality of those making reports of possible misconduct to the maximum extent permitted by law.

How to Report a Concern

- Ethical concerns can be reported through multiple channels:
    - Directly to the immediate supervisor or manager.
    - To the People Excellence department.
    - Through the dedicated Ethics and Compliance hotline or email.
    - Via anonymous reporting tools if confidentiality is desired.

Arche Global is committed to maintaining a safe and ethical work environment. By reporting any suspected violations, you are helping to uphold the values and standards set forth in the CBC of Conduct. Your cooperation and commitment to ethical behaviour are greatly appreciated.

Receipt and Acknowledgment of Concerns

- All reported concerns will be acknowledged within 2 business days.
- The Compliance or HR department will log and categorize the concern based on its nature and severity.

Investigation Process

- Assigned Investigator: The Compliance department or a designated investigator will handle the investigation, ensuring impartiality and confidentiality.
- Preliminary Review: An initial review will be completed within 5 business days to determine the validity of the complaint and the appropriate course of action.
- Detailed Investigation: If warranted, a detailed investigation will commence, with interviews and evidence collection as necessary.

Escalation Process

- High-risk or sensitive issues will be escalated to CEO and(or) the Ethics Committee for further review.
- Legal or regulatory concerns will be referred to the Legal department.

Resolution and Response

- The investigation and resolution process will typicallybe completed within 30 business

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement days, depending on the complexity of the issue.

- The reporting party will be informed of the outcome, respecting confidentiality constraints.

Corrective Actions

- If a violation is confirmed, appropriate corrective actions will be taken, which may include disciplinary measures, policy revisions, or training programs.

Protection Against Retaliation

- The company strictly prohibits retaliation against individuals who report concerns in good faith.
- Any form of retaliation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Responsibilities

- Employees: Responsible for reporting ethical concerns promptly and honestly.
- Supervisors/Managers: Must support employees in reporting and escalate concerns appropriately.
- Compliance/HR Departments: Accountable for managing the investigation and resolution process.
- Senior Management: Oversees the implementation of corrective actions and ensures accountability.

Monitoring and Review

- The Compliance department will review reported cases quarterly to identify trends and areas for improvement.
- This policy will be reviewed annually and updated as necessary to maintain effectiveness.

This document is the proprietary and confidential information of Arche Global. It is provided agreement and cannot be reproduced or used for purposes outside the scope of the agreement