1. Dress Code Guidelines

At Arche Global, we strive to maintain a professional and comfortable work environment that upholds our commitment to excellence. The way we present ourselves directly impacts our credibility and relationships with Customers and colleagues. We appreciate your cooperation and commitment to this policy.

1.1 Monday to Thursday & Customer Meetings

- Employees are required to wear formal business attire.
- Outfits must be neat, clean, and properly ironed.
- Shirts must be tucked in (Men), and footwear should be formal (no flip-flops or casual sandals).
- Employees (Men/Women) are permitted to wear single tone jeans on all days other than Mondays. However, jeans are not permitted on Mondays & on Customers visit.

1.2 Acceptable Professional Attire

- Formal Indian wear: Sarees, salwar suits, Kurtis with leggings/pants, Formal Shirts (Men/Women)
- Western business attire: Formal trousers with shirts/blouses, business suits, Sleeveless tops/Kurtis with broad shoulders, knee-length formal dresses or skirts.

1.3 Footwear

- Closed-toe shoes, formal sandals, or low-to-mid heels are recommended.
- Avoid flip-flops, beach sandals, or overly casual footwear.

1.4 Business Casual Days (Fridays)

- Smart casuals are permitted on designated days like Fridays.
- Clothing must still be presentable for Customers or leadership interactions.
- Avoid ripped jeans, shorts, or T-shirts with inappropriate logos or messages.

1.5 Not Permitted

- Ripped jeans, shorts, tank tops, T-Shirts, strapless/sleeveless tops with thin shoulders, or revealing attire.
- Loud prints, excessive embellishments, or clothing with inappropriate slogans.
- Athletic wear (unless part of a wellness or company-sponsored event).
- Single-tone jeans are permitted on all working days; however, jeans that are faded, ripped, torn, or have excessive pockets or embellishments are not allowed.

2. General Appearance Guidelines

- Clothes must always be clean, well-maintained, and free of stains, rips, or tears.
- Attire should be appropriate for a professional setting and not revealing or unprofessional.
- Footwear should align with a formal work environment.
