Employee Referral Policy

Purpose

Employee referral is one of the widely used and cost-effective sources to recruit candidates through our internal trusted employees. This policy provides clear guidelines about the documentation, policy and process of releasing payment under Employee Referral Program. This amended policy is effective 01st Aug 2019

Scope

This policy is applicable to all the employees of Arche Global Pvt Ltd.

Action Steps

1. To refer a candidate an employee needs to attach the referred CV and email it to "careers@arche.global". Any referred candidate walking into a branch directly will be considered as a Direct Walk in.

2. Referred candidates will be reviewed against the JD/ minimum criteria and if found suitable, an interview shall be arranged with the Talent Acquisition Team / respective Manager.
3. Selection would happen on merit only and the referral process would be considered as one of the multiple sourcing options being used by Talent Acquisition Team to source talent for vacancies created within the organization.
4. Referral Process
   To ensure a smooth and transparent employee referral program, the following process shall be followed:

a) Referral Submission:
   I. The referring employee must send the referred candidate's updated resume to careers@arche.global.
   II. The subject line should clearly mention "Employee Referral – [Candidate Name]" for tracking purposes.

b) Eligibility for Referral Reward:
   I. The referred candidate must complete 180 days of continuous employment with the organization.
   II. Upon the candidate reaching this milestone, the People Excellence Department will initiate the review and validation process.

c) Verification:
   The People Excellence Department will verify the active employment status of the referring employee (i.e., the employee must be in service at the time of reward processing).
