Travel and Reimbursement Policy

1. Objective

The objective of this policy is to:

a) Describe the types of expenditures that are reimbursable by the company.

b) Inform employees of their responsibilities to control and report travel.

c) Describe the process to claim and attain travel reimbursements.

2. Eligibility

This policy is applicable for all full-time employees of Arche Global travelling within India or Overseas for Business purpose only.

3. Guidelines - Domestic Travel

3.1 All employees are responsible for cost-effective business travel. Before approving, the respective manager should carefully review and approve all Expense claims. Items that are not reimbursable should be brought to the attention of each employee prior submitting.

3.2 Though these guidelines are intended to be comprehensive, it is impossible to anticipate every situation encountered by the employee. The employee is expected to apply these guidelines on a conservative basis, consistent with normal living standards and, where the policy is silent, to exercise good business judgment.

3.3 Employees are expected to exercise good judgment with respect to expenses. Spend the company's money as carefully and judiciously as they would their own. Report all expenses and advances promptly and accurately with required documentation

4. Procedures

4.1 The mode of travel/accommodation/food is applicable as per the defined grade only. Expenses beyond
